LIST OF LUNATICS AND CALAMITY HOWLERS.

Not to be a slave is to dare and do.—Victor Hugo.

Cursed be the man that first loved gold.—J. Cooper.

The poor are our dependence for liberty.—Jefferson.

Funding is simply robbing the people on a grand scale.—Jefferson.

The cause of over-depression is money famine and nothin else. —J. A. Logan.

This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it.—A. Lincoln.

Banks are far more dangerous than standing armies. Let bank paper be suppressed.—Jefferson.

Our only resource, and an ample one for any emergency—treasury notes bottomed on taxes.—Jefferson.

You have made one kind of money for the people and another for the bondholders.—Thaddeus Stevens.

The bank is a union of the government and the money power—a union far more dangerous than that of chuch and state.—Calhoun.

Prices will fall and rise as the volume of money is increased or diminished is a law that is as unalterable as any law of nature.—Prof. Walker.

The liberties of the people are more in danger from the aggressions of the courts than from mobs and riots.—Jefferson's Second Inaugural Address.

Liberty cannot long endure in any country where the tendency of legislation is to concentrate wealth in the hands of the few.—Daniel Webster.

Anything that the government will receive in the payment of public dues is money, and good mony, no matter what its form may be.—Henry Clay.

If the whole volume of money in circulation were doubled prices would be doubled. If it was increased one-fourth prices would rise one-fourth.—J. S. Mill.

Why compel the people to pay interest on government credit, through the bank, when said credit should be extended to the people direct without interest.—Jefferson.

Wendell Phillips said years ago: "Here, on the soil enriched by the blood of the patriotic dead, is to be erected an aristocratic monarcy, with wealth as its god."

The present system of finance robs labor, gorges capital, makes the richer and the poor poorer, and turns a republic into an aristocracy of capital.—Wendell Phillips in 1870.

The power now possessed by the national banks of throwing up their circulation at will, is wrong in principle, unnecessary and dangerous.—Report of United States Treasurer Gilfillin, 1881, page 30.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A day will come when a cannon will be exhibited in public museums, just as instruments of torture are now, and the people will wonder that such a thing could have been.—Victor Hugo.

I am not among those who fear the people. They and not the rich, are our dependence for continued freedom. And to preserve their independence we must not let our leaders load us with perpetual debt.—Jefferson.

I am certainly of the opinion that gold and silver, at rates fixed by congress, constitute the legal standard of values in this country, and that neither congress nor any state has authority to establ any other standard or to displace this standard.—Daniel Webster.

The right of issuing paper money, like that of issuing gold and silver coins, belongs exclusively to the nation, and cannot be claimed by individuals.—Writings of Albert Gallatin, (for twelve years secretary of the treasury) Vol. III, page 420

No reform, moral or intellectual ever came from the upper class of society. Each and all came from the protests of martyr and victim. The emancipation of the working people must be achieved by the working people themselves.—Wendell Phillips.

I am with the laboring people. We never agreed to pay the bonds in gold or coin. No man can find it in law or bonds. I will never submit to have one money for the people and another for the bond holder. It will sink any party and it ought to.—Ben Wade in the United States senate, 1869.

There is gathered around the capital of this nation a gang of pirates who thundered successfully at the doors, until they have driven this government to the most preposterous acts of bad faith and legalized robbery that ever oppressed a free nation since the dawn of history.—O. P. Morton

Thy princes are rebellious and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards, they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.—Isaiah I, 23-24.

APPOINTMENTS CANCELLED.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 30.—On account of the discourtesy shown Col. Bradley at Eminence to-day the following letter was sent to Chairman Norman of the democratic campaign committee tonight by Chairman Hunter of the republican executive committee: "The discourtesy offered our candidate for governor at Eminence to-day in breaking off debates by denying him a hearing constrains us to cancel the remaining appointments."

PREVENTED BY A MOB.

Eminence, Ky., Aug. 30.—The sixth joint debate in the series of twelve to have taken place between Col. W. O. Bradley and Gen. Watt P. Hardin at Eminence, Ky., to-day, was called off on account of the noisy demonstration of the crowd.

Col. Bradley was to have opened and closed the debate. When the colonel attempted to open the debate the noise and disturbance of the crowd was so great that he was compelled to sit down.

W. P. Thorne, democratic chairman, arose and appealed for order, but the crowd paid no attention to him.

Col. Bradley attempted again and again to speak, six times in all, but failed to get a hearing. Seeing that any attempt to speak was in vain, he gave it up, saying that the noise was more than he could stand and refused most positively to proceed further. The colonel said: "I wish I had my voice a minute so I could tell this crowd what utter contempt I hold them in."

Then, folding his manuscript, he left the stand.

The action of the crowd is condemned by the chairman of the democratic committee, as well as the republicans who were present, and they declare it is an outrage and disgrace to Henry county.

The Louisville Courier-Journal thus sums up the situation in Kentucky: The Courier-Journal has exhausted all its resources in the effort to avert the conditions that confront us. A divided canvass and certain defeat stare the party and the ticket in the face. If Gen. Hardin cannot, without the loss of his self-respect, modify his views so as to meet the demands of a platform adopted upon a square issue, how can he or his friends expect those whose position was vindicated by the adoption of that platform to stultify themselves by yelding the very point decided by the convention? Late and early we have warned the party leaders of the impending catastrophe, but now our hands are tied behind us, and our voice, addressing itself to deaf ears, leaves us free of responsibility."

They are now Political promentioning Nu- phets would be gent for presi- ter postpone dent. Just as their prophecies well run him for for the presents. that place as for —Light 21st. governor: his chances are the same for whatever place his party sees fi to nominate him to. —Light 21st.

"Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant." If the Light could only manage to be consistant with itself throughout each issue—to "maintain the parity" with itself, speaking in the language of the times, it would be safe as it only lasts a day. Yes, the Light is extinguished daily.—Waxahachie Mirror.

NEW YORK POPULIST CONVENTION.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The state convention of the people's party was held in this city yesterday. T. B. Wakeman, of New York, was nominated as secretary of state, David Rosseau of New York for comptroller, and other nominations were made. The platform adopted ratified the Omaha platform of 1892, declared for the free coinage of silver, for a single land tax, for government ownership of railroads, telegraphs and telephones, for the South Carolina system of saloons for the selling of liquor and against the issuance of interest-bearing bonds.

TWELVE GOLDEN RULES.

1. I will not speak evil of any one.

2. I will not criticise any person against whom I am prejudiced.

3. I will restrain my tongue when I am angry.

4. I will be silent when I know there is danger of being misunderstood.

5. I will with-hold my words when I have a doubt as to my motive in speaking.

6. I will not be a "tale bearer." I will not tell or repeat anything that will make unkind feelings between people, or that will create prejudice.

7. I will not try to hear unkind or wrong things, and will do all in my power to discourage those who indulge in unkind words.

8. I will cultivate a habit of placing a charitable construction upon the words and conduct of my fellows.

9. I will do all in my power to help the weak, the erring and the distressed.

10. I will cultivate kindliness of thought and expression in all my relations in life.

11. I will be clean in my words.

12. Believing that every one has some good quality or qualities, I will look for the good and emulate it, and when I find evil I will pray that its possessor may be delivered from its power.—Ex.

KEARBY WILL SPEAK.

HON. Jerome C. Kearby, the talented lawyer and citizen of Dallas, will speak at the court house in McKinney Saturday, Sept., 7, at 2 p. m. Make your arrangements to attekd this speaking.

Mrs. Laura Howe of Birmingham Ala. is jailed, charged with beating and choking her 3 year old step-son to death.

JUDGE Geo. N. Aldredge is being petitioned to enter the race for governor on a "sound money" platform.

THOMAS J. Middleton, editor of the Waxahachie Mirror, is one of the ablest writers in the state and the populist party is honored by his recent espousal of its cause.

CONGRESSMAN W. J. Bryan continues to speak. He was in Denver last week. He is for "free silver or bust." In other words he says that the democratic party will burst if it refuses to give out a straight free silver plank 16 to 1.

THE McKinney Examiner is favoring Culberson for re-election to the gubernatorial chair because it thinks he is the best man to beat the populists with. The Examiner would favor a full fledged goldbug if it thought one could be elected.

THE report that Cyclone Davis will not meet Hon. L. T. Dashiel in joint debate is false. Mr. Davis has a long list of appointments out, and in a letter published in last Tuesday's Dallas News he invites Dashiel to meet him at one or all of these appointments.

A glove contest was stopped at Dallas Monday night by the arrest of the principals by Sheriff Cabell and his deputies. The prisoners were lodged in jail. Previous to the contest County Collector Jacoby refused the contestants license. It is generally understood to be a test case to decide the validity of any law to prevent like contests.

THE recent editorial flings in the Southern Mercury about not embracing an idea outside of the Omaha platform sounds rather too much like those of an autocrat. The great populist party has no moss on its back, consequently when it sees a good thing it will grasp it. Those who would rule or ruin had better get from under the wheels of progress.

Nervous

People should realize that the only true and permanent cure for their condition is to be found in having

Pure Blood

Because the health of every organ and tissue of the body depends upon the purity of the blood. The whole world knows the standard blood purifier is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

And therefore it is the only true and reliable medicine for nervous people. It makes the blood pure and healthy, and thus cures nervousness, makes the nerves firm and strong, gives sweet sleep, mental vigor, a good appetite, perfect digestion. It does all this, and cures Scrofula, Eczema, or Salt Rheum and all other blood diseases, because it

The 17 year old son of A. H. Riggs of Mill county committed suicide by shooting himself. Cause unknown.

Dunn's Review gives out a hopeful report this week in regard to prices. It predicts an era of prosperity. We will see.

"The Silver Lining" is the title of a new dramatic play which was rendered for the first time in Chicago Monday night Sept. 2. It is in line with Coin's financial school and proved to be a success.

Mrs. M. L. Taylor's divorce suit was tried on the train leaving Spring Valley Minn. Her decree of divorce was handed her about seven miles from the city.

The Southern Pacific R. R. Co., have arrested prominent scalpers in New York, New Orleans and San Antonio, which is causing much excitement.

An apparently well dressed young man was arrested in Terrell while stealing clothing. Five pairs of pants were removed from his person leaving the sixth for him to wear. Hs also wore three shirts.

At Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Josiah Guess committed suicide by saturating the bed with coal oil, setting fire to it and laying herself in the flames. She was suffering from temporary insanity.

Dr. E. M. Remington and his mother were found dead in a cottage in Hot Springs. The bodies were in an advance stage of decomposition. The conclusion is that the doctor killed his mother and then killed himself. They came to Hot Springs from Atlanta 18 months ago.

Twenty business men, all democrats, of Atlanta Ga. denounce election frauds, which were committed in 1894 in the city of Augusta. These business men ask for a fair election in the coming congressional election of the tenth district between Tom Watson populist and J. C. Black democrat. It is said that in 1894, hundreds of negro votes were purchased for 10 cents apiece.

DEMOCRATS are practically unanimous on one subject. They all agree that Nugent will be the next governor of Texas.—McKinney Democrat.

A more "bald faced" lie was never uttered.—Van Alstyne News.

Now, we are not going to get mad at Bro Evans. We recognize the fact that he is one of the "official gang" represented by the recent pow wow at Fort Worth. The great trouble with Bro. Evans is that he imagines that he is a true blue democrat, consequently he thinks Nugent will not be the next governor. It has never dawned upon the dark recesses of Bro. Evans' cranium that he belongs to the "fourth party," which will go down under the mighty influences of modern democracy headed by Cleveland, Carlisle & Co.

J. A. Barnett has ginned about twenty bales of cotton up to date.

J. C. Saunders is talking of moving in the dwelling near the gin formerly occupied by W. A. Smith, where he will be employed as book-keeper.

W. A. Smith is erecting a nice dwelling in the north part of town.

The new school building is nearing completion.

Prof. C. F. Trotter arrived on the Ridge Sunday, back from his Missouri visit.

S. P. Kuykendall is erecting a neat dwelling near the college.

Methodists are holding a protracted meeting at this place.

The Baptists held a series of meetings with good success, adding about twenty to their number.

G. F. Warden just returned from a flying trip to Galveston.

G. H. Calloway has been appointed post master at this place. T. J. Grounds having resigned.

Visitors and movers continue to keep the road hot and we think the young men and boys could do something wiser than hooting at them as they pass. HILL.

OPERA HOUSE.

J. S. Roderick has leased Heard's opera house, the only one in McKinney, for the coming season which will open in our city next Monday night, Sept. 9, with the famous Alcazar Opera Company of twenty five artists before the foot lights in the sparkling opera "Olivette." Mr. Roderick is well known to all our people as a model gentleman, affable and not without experience as a theatrical manager. He is rustling for a number of first class productions and how well he is succeeding is attested by the oue he has on the boards for Monday night. Do you like charming music lots of fun and versatile comedians? if you do, don't miss "Olivette."

STILL COMING!

HON. J. S. WOODS

Leaves the G. O. P. and Joins the Populists.

WHO NEXT?

TURNED ON HIS PARTY.

Kaufman, Kaufman Co., Tex., Aug. 30.—The populists held a picnic at Gray's Prairie yesterday. Speeches were made by Jake Rhodes and Hon. J. S Woods. The latter declared himself henceforth a people's party man, and he denounced the democratic party, saying that he was ashamed of his past affiliation with it.

HELLO! McKINNEY GAZETTE.

Gaze Upon the Words of Your Idolized Leader, Bland.

BLAND NOT GOING TO KENTUCKY.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 2.—The demands on the Hon. Richard Bland for addresses are so numerous and insistant from all parts of the country that he sees no rest for fully a month.

"No, I shall not go to Kentucky," Mr. Bland replied to a question. "I had intended to visit that state and stay there about a month, but the platform adopted by the Louisville convention was so at variance with democratic coinage principle in its indorsement of Cleveland and Carlisle that I concluded it would be best to cancel my engagements there."

Besides his parents he leaves several sisters and brothers, one of whom was his twin, and a number of other relatives and friends to moran his departure.

INFAMOUS!

BAILEY'S LATEST INSULT SUSTAINS

His Well Known Record As a

MAN OF SLANDER.

For Once He Does Not Deny.

We reproduce the following from the Denton Monitor, a democratic paper.

[DENTON MONITOR, AUG. 31, 1895.]

"A representative of the Monitor met Hon. J. W. Bailey, congressman from this district, in Gainesville, last Sunday evening and called his attention to the fact that the Gainesville Signal, by the affidavit of one Johnson, had made out a prima facie case against him as having employed the imfamous boycott upon the Pops on account of their politics. Mr. Sizer Gates was present and Bailey called up a gentleman whom he addressed as "Judge," and then asked the reporter if the Monitor was a democratic paper, and whether Mr. Geers had moved back to Denton, adding that R. M. Collins, who had edited the Monitor for awhile, had a personal spite against him. He said he had seen some of the articles referred to, and noted the Monitor's defense of him.

Reporter—Mr. Geers edited the Bosque Citizen for several years but never moved from Denton. The Monitor is a democratic paper, of course, and many of its readers desire to know, from your own lips, whether it is true that you have declared that "no populist should work on the house that you are building" in Gainesville, on account of his politics.

Mr. Bailey—It is true that I made the remark attributed to me; and I repeat that no populist can work for me. I have certainly boycotted the pops. I have assumed this attitude toward them because 90 per cent. of them are liars. They go about over the country and lie on me, telling people that I have employed men to work for me and then won't pay them. There may be 10 per cent. of the pops who will allow the truth to flow, unobstructed, and are not liars; but I don't know them. Hence I have boycotted them if that is the word, on account of their suggestio falsi and suppressio veri—their general intentional falsehood, touching my transaction with them. This same Johnson, who made the affidavit you refer to, backed the parties who lied on me about the window frame, which was made for the contractor—not for me. It would not fit and the contractor would not have it, and they went over the country lying on me about it, charging that I hired men and would not pay them for their work. No pop can work for me on account of their proneness to vigorous and industrious lying on me—not on account of their politics or religion, unless their religion is to lie and their politics to repeat lies.

Reporter—I see the notice of the "prima facie case" against you has gone the rounds of the press and appeared even in a Sunday paper at Denison, without comment.

Bailey—Yes, I have enemies at Denison, but you may state in your paper that I have, in the past, thrived under their hostility, am thriving now, and will so thrive in the future. Tell them to keep it up."

[DENTON MONITOR AUG. 31, 1895.]

We regret that time and space does not allow us to devote more attention to the above. According to Mr. Bailey there are twenty seven hundred populists in Collin county whose religion it is to lie and one hundred and forty-five thousand in the state? Are these populists liars because they have exposed Bailey by democratic testimony and out of his own mouth? Did they lie when they said he voted for appropriations to support Catholic institutions? Did they lie when they quoted his words about extravagance of congressmen in his first race against Judge Hare?

Did they lie when they told of his vote in favor of extra clerk hire?

Did they lie when they repeated his words uttered at Copeville to the effect that he would hang his head in shame and spurn a democratic nomination if certain measures were not enacted by the democratic party when it got full power?

Did they lie when they repeated about the same expression he made at the alliance encampment near McKinney, in July, 1894?

Did they lie when they repeated information from democratic papers at Denison that in a joint discussion in that city he threatened to cut his opponent's throat?

In short, who is the biggest liar in the 5th congressional district? Let the public judge.

"R. S. Chandler is dead." These were the whispered words of sorrow which passed from lip to lip early Tuesday morning, Sept. 3, 1895. The deceased was born Sept. 4, 1855. Thus just on the eve of his fortieth birthday the spirit of this worthy citizen, husband, father and friend took its flight from its house of clay. The funeral services was under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge of McKinney. Rev. J. L. Morris conducted the ceremonies at the grave, in the Chambers cemetery, 9 miles north of McKinney. A large concourse of mourning relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting place which was significant of the high esteem for the the loved and lost. The deceased was serving his second term as county assessor and his absence will be a source of regret to all who knew him.

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.

NO DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nerveless, as LaGrippe.

Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, says: "In 1889 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.

When in this condition, I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured, much to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends."

G. F. Boltan's clothing store on the west side of the square was dicovered on fire Wednesday morning about 6 o'clock and the flames extinguished before doing much damage. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, consequently a fire inquest was immediately began in Justice Faulkner's court, which is now being conducted behind closed doors.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could scarcely talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieved him of his cold so quickly that other at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Wallace & Everett.

When a person is losing flesh and wasting away there is cause for alarm. Nothing so worries a physician. Consumptives would never die if they could regain their usual weight. In fact there would be no consumption if there was no wasting of the system. The cause of this loss of flesh is a failure to properly digest the food eaten. Nine-tenths of all our diseases date back to some derangement of the stomach.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial will stop this wasting of the body. It acts by causing the food we eat to be digested so as to do good, for undigested food does more harm than good. The Cordial contains food already digested and a digester of foods as well.

SOCIAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phillips entertained Thursday evening in honor of Miss Dora Roberts.

Misses Alma and Annie Hill, Hallie Atkinson, Corrie Dulaney and Messrs Joe Barnes and Jesse Atkinson spent a few pleasant hours, Monday evening, at the residence of J. J. Thompson, west of town, the guests of Miss Maggie Thompson, who left the next day for Belton Female college.

The parents of Miss Edna Collier gave a birthday party in honor of herself, Saturday evening, August 31. She was twelve years old and she sent out many unique invitations, one of which was received by the editor and wife. The little people attended numerously and were highly entertained by Miss Edna. The event was certainly a happy affair and we hope that many more joyous birthdays will adorn the life of our little friend.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Miller of Weston, began a series of meetings at Liberty, Sunday.

Eld. Granville Jones of Austin will preach at the Christian church to-night.

The C. P. church was well filled, Sunday night, at the union services. Eld. J. N. Crutcher preached the sermon.

Eld. Douglas of Melissa, assisted by another able preacher, is conducting a successful meeting at Stiffs Chapel.

The new Methodist Liberty church, 6 miles northwest of McKinney will be dedicated the first Sunday in October. Rev. J. A. Stafford, presiding elder, will conduct the ceremonies.

The Baptist meeting now in progress is being well attended. Rev. R. C. Pender of Denison is doing some effective preaching.

Attend the devotional exercises of the Epworth League at the Methodist church Sunday evenings from half past four to half past five. It will do you good. Miss Lula Allison, leader next Sunday.

At its monthly business meeting, Monday night, the Epworth League changed the time of holding their cottage praver-meeting from Tuesday to Thursday nights. Besides other business transacted, it was agreed to purchase new song books for the League's special use and to appoint a librarian. The report of the 2nd vice president showed the League to be doing a noble work in the charity and help department.

ABERDEEN, O.

MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
DEAR SIRS:—I bought a bottle of your P. P. P. at Hot Springs, Ark., and it has done me more good than three month's treatment at the Hot Springs.
Have you no agents in this part of the country, or let me know how much it will cost to get three or six bottles from your city by express. Respectfully yours,
JAS. M NEWTON,
Aberdeen, Brown County, O.

McKINNEY SCHOOLS

Our city schools, both public and private, opened Monday with a splendid attendance of pupils and a full corps of teachers. The public school with C. O. Smith superintendent and I. A. Armstrong principal, enrolled over 400 the first day. This school has 10 teachers and is crowded, notwithstanding no overs or unders are received. The enrollment will probably be more than five hundred.

Petersburg, C. C. Cross, principal, began its term also Monday.

The prospects for a successful term at the McKinney Institute were never brighter. J. B. Dodson A. M., president, presided two terms over our city free schools and is well known to all our people in our town and in the country, as a fine disciplinarian and an enthusiastic educational worker. He has surrounded himself with a corps of eight able assistants and adopted progress as his watchword. He opened with 125 pupils present which number was swelled to nearly 150 the second day.

So begins the educational conquest of the 1895–96 school term in McKinney.

LOCAL OPTION.

Local option in McKinney is quite a theme of discussion in the Grayson county contest now going on and which will be voted on, Monday Sept. 9.

Judge P. B. Muse came down a few days ago and with the alleged assistance of H. C. Mack quietly got up some anti-thunder, reflecting very discreditably upon McKinney's experience with that measure, which has been scattered broadcast over Grayson county.

The pros of our city and precinct promptly met and drafted an answer refuting the Muse anti-circular.

The pro circular, which is numerously signed by our best citizens, expresses regrets that Judge Muse should ignore his friends here who have ever taken a great pride in him, and asperse them and our city, his former home, as he has in the anti-circular alluded to.

Dr. Flinn, P. E. Denton and a negro named Alf Miller were arrested, Tuesday, for unlawfully selling intoxicating drinks to Ben Washington, colored. They were placed under bond for appearance at the October term of county court.

PRICKLY ASH, POKE ROOT AND POTASSIUM

Makes Marvelous Cures in Blood Poison Rheumatism and Scrofula

P. P. P. purifies the blood, builds up the weak and debilitated, gives strength to weakened nerves, expels diseases, giving the patient health and happiness where sickness, gloomy feelings and lassitude first prevailed.

For primary, secondary and tertiary syphilis, for blood poisoning, mercurial poison, malaria, dyspepsia, and in all blood and skin diseases, like blotches, pimples, old chronic ulcers, tetter, scald head, boils, erysipelas, eczema—we may say, without fear of contradiction, that P. P. P. is the best blood purifier in the world, and makes positive, speedy and permanent cures in all cases.

Ladies whose systems are poisoned and whose blood is in an impure condition, due to menstrual irregularities, are peculiarly benefited by the wonderful tonic and blood cleansing properties of P. P. P.—Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium.

SPRINGFIELD, MO., Aug. 14th, 1893.—I can speak in the highest terms of your medicine from my own personal knowledge. I was affected with heart disease, pleurisy and rheumatism for 35 years, was treated by the very best physicians and spent hundreds of dollars, tried every known remedy without finding relief. I have only taken one bottle of your P. P. P., and can cheerfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I can recommend your medicine to all sufferers of the above diseases.

MRS. M. M. YEARY, Springfield, Green County, Mo.

Skin Cancer Cured.

Testimony from the Mayor of Sequin, Tex.

SEQUIN, TEX., January 14, 1893.
MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief: it purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,
CAPT. W. M. RUST, Attorney at Law.

"Death will release me if nothing else will" shouted W. A. Harper, a prisoner in the county jail at Pittsburg, Pa., Friday as he plunged to a stone pavement 45 feet below.

A two-year-old child died in New York on the 31st ult., from the effects of swallowing a shawl pin.

C. E. Perkins, Phoenix Fire Insurance agent, and C. B. Edgerly, a Boston grain dealer asphyxiated themselves on the 30th ult.

Two state convicts while working on the H. & T. C. railroad near Thornton, Tex., were shot and killed by guards while trying to escape.

Henry Freeman, a moonshiner, shot and killed United States Deputy Marshall Boyd Arnett at White Oak, Morgan county, Ky., on the 30th ult.

Twenty men were jailed, last week, at Wilmington, Del., charged with violating neutrality laws in forming an expedition to aid Cuban revolutionists.

Mrs. Dr. Davis, of Monroe Center. Ill., was frightfully burned by the explosion of a teakettle which had been filled with coal oil instead of water.

FOUR DEAD.

Sullivan, Mo., Aug. 30.—Yesterday evening three children of a negro named Jenkins while at play went to a place near the barn to gather eggs. The place was rather out of the way and dangerous, owing to snakes which are numerous in that region.

One child thrust its hand into what it supposed was the hen's nest and quickly withdrew it, exclaiming that the hen had pecked its hand. The other two children put in their hand with the same results and then set up a loud cry. The mother was at the well with the baby and at the alarm she left the baby and ran to the assistance of the three children, who, it seems, had been bitten by a rattle snake. During the excitement the baby fell into the well and was drowned, and the three other children also died.

WELL EDUCATED.

"What goes to make up an education depends largely upon the point of view. A Henry county negro was discovered carrying a very large armful of books, which brought forth the inquiry:

"Going to school?"

"Yes, sar, boss."

"Do you study all those book?"

"No, sar, dey's my brudder's. I'se an ignorant kind of nigger side him, boss. Yer jest oughter see dat nigger figgerin'. He done gone an' ciphered clean through addition, partition, substraction, distraction, abomination, justification, creation, amputation and adoption."—Atlanta Constitution.
